ERRATUM

On November 6, 2020, a Decision and Order issued in this matter in which I overruled the Employer's objections, sustained challenges to the ballots of Sanjoana Fernandez, Larry Gilloux, Ashley Hannah, Alison Lopes-Cavalho, Edmund Norton, and Joseph Tache, and overruled a challenge to the ballot of Alberto Quesada. The portion of the Decision and Order identifying the parties' right to request review inadvertently contained incorrect information. The Decision and Order is hereby corrected in that respect to state as follows:

RIGHT TO REQUEST REVIEW

Pursuant to Section 102.69(c)(2) of the Board's Rules and Regulations, any party may file with the Board in Washington, DC, a request for review of this decision, which may be combined with a request for review of the regional director's decision to direct an election as provided in Sections 102.67(c) and 102.69(c)(2), if not previously filed. The request for review must conform to the requirements of Sections 102.67(e) and (i)(1) of the Board's Rules and must be filed no later than 11:59 p.m. on Thursday, December 3, 2020.¹ If no request for review is filed, the decision is final and shall have the same effect as if issued by the Board.

A request for review may be E-Filed through the Agency's website but may not be filed by facsimile. To E-File the request for review, go to www.nlr.gov, select E-File Documents, enter the NLRB Case Number, and follow the detailed instructions. If not E-Filed, the request for review should be addressed to the Executive Secretary, National Labor Relations Board, 1015 Half Street SE, ¹ Normally, the request for review would be due in this matter on November 23, 2020, 10 business days after the original Decision and Order issued. Even though footnote 8 in the original decision indicated that Alberto Quesada's ballot would not be counted until the request for review period expired or final action on any timely filed request for review, I recognize that the original request for review instructions could have misled the parties to believing that they could wait and file a request for review after the ballot was counted and a certification of representative or results issued. Because the Decision and Order provided for the opening and counting of a challenged ballot, any request for review must be filed with the Board 10 business days from the issuance of the decision. Therefore, to ensure that no party mistakenly relied on original request for review language and decided to wait for the final action on this case to file a request for review, I have reset the period for filing such a request for 10 business days from today's date.

Washington, DC 20570-0001. A party filing a request for review must serve a copy of the request on the other parties and file a copy with the Regional Director. A certificate of service must be filed with the Board together with the request for review.
